

BOARD OF PIANO TUNERS URGED BY LEGISLATOR

MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 10.—A bill to create a piano tuners' commission, introduced in the State legislature by Representative Farrar, of Littleton, brought the remark from William J. Ahern, dean of the house, that if the bill would regulate piano playing he would put his shoulder to the wheel to secure its passage.

COCAINE IN WALNUTS IS LATEST SHELL GAME

DENVER, Feb. 10.—Federal agents charged with the task of enforcing the Harrison drug act couldn't reconcile the fact of English walnuts selling at $3 each with the widely published reduction in food costs.

Investigating, they found the walnuts had been opened, the meat replaced with small capsules of morphine and cocaine and the shells glued together again.

Harry Beema, alleged to be an old offender against the narcotic laws, was arrested for operating the "new shell game."

Prince Is Best Dressed Man.

LONDON, Feb. 10.—The Daily Graphic votes the title of "best dressed man in London" to the Prince of Wales, expressing the opinion that he outshines certain well-known matinee idols who dress their part off stage as well as on. In addition to the various forms of "civies" in which he excels, he can wear uniforms of various kinds with high distinction.

It requires one cubic yard of clay to make 400 bricks.

DIAMONDS POURING IN BUT PRICES STILL HIGH

London Syndicate Controls Output of African Mines.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Diamonds imported into the United States in 1920 were valued at $39,000,000, according to statistics compiled by the National Bank of Commerce of New York. This was nearly double the importations of 1919 and more than triple those of 1918.

With such an enormous quantity of diamonds pouring into the country, the natural inference might be that prices of the gems would decrease. Not so. Diamond prices are fixed by the London Diamond Syndicate which controls the output of practically all the South African mines and these mines today are the source of 98 per cent of all the diamonds in the world's market. The syndicate announced recently there would be no reduction in the price of diamonds and if necessary the output of the mines would be reduced to maintain present prices.

BRITISH UNION LABOR CLERKS WANT MORE PAY

LONDON, Feb. 10.—There have been new wrinkles in the way of strikes for so long that everybody has concluded that nothing new is possible. And then it happens.

Labor is striking against labor, or preparing to do so, if labor doesn't concede labor's demands. Clerical officials employed at the London headquarters of the various labor unions have themselves formed a union, and affiliated themselves with the National Union of Clerks. They demand that labor pay its labor wages on which they can live in decency and comfort and uphold the dignity of labor.

BOXING BOUT FOR BRIDE ENDS IN EVEN HONORS

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Lots of amusement was the result at Hammer-smith of a six-round contest in which John Shear and John Staples boxed for $25 and a prospective wife.

Neither knew anything about the noble art, but merely wrestled, and at the end, when both were so tired they could hardly stand up, the referee declared the bout a draw amid outburst of laughter. They divided the purse, but—who gets the bride?

SNAKE ON STOCKINGS WORN BY LONDON WOMEN

LONDON, Feb. 10.—Adam didn't know enough about the serpent in the Garden of Eden—in fact, it's doubtful whether he ever met him, and so, to remedy the omission, the 1921 Eve is twining a serpent around her stocking. A new fancy for dancing stockings is the sequined snake, which twines its tail around midday's ankle and nestles its head just below her knee. Only one leg is thus adorned. Obviously too much for Adam's equilibrium.

The device has all the charm of novelty, for it is the first time woman has dared thus to flaunt man with a reminder of his fall, and certainly the sparkling ornament is intriguing enough in its gentle accentuation of Eve's basic beauties.

UNIVERSITY HEADS PLAN WORLD STUDENT CENTER

Under the leadership of President Harry Pratt Judson of the University of Chicago, President John Grier Hibben, of Princeton, and Director John W. Cunliffe, of the Columbia University School of Journalism, the American University Union in Europe, founded during the war to meet the needs of American college men overseas, is being moulded into a permanent international institution which, according to its sponsors, shall be "a lasting and tangible token of Franco-American friendship, and a memorial to the service in France of American college men during the war."

The plans of the union, with which more than fifty universities, colleges and higher technical schools throughout the United States are linked, include the building in Paris of a "Maison des Etudiants," which will, according to the announcement of Professor Cunliffe, secretary of the union's board of trustees, be an educational and intellectual clearing house for American and foreign men of letters and science, as well as a world center for students.

5,000 RUSS REFUGEES
HERDED ABOARD SHIPS

PARIS, Feb. 10.—Five thousand Russian refugees, including many former Wrangel officers and their wives, remained huddled aboard ships off the Tunis coast for several days without being permitted to go ashore, because of the strange error of a French administrative official.

The refugees were to have been debarked at Bizerta and orders were issued from Paris that they were to occupy a number of barracks used to house Serbian refugees during the war. Paris had forgotten that the barracks had been demolished two years before and it took a long exchange of messages to straighten out the situation. Among the refugees were 350 women, belonging to the upper and middle classes of Russia, society who were without even a change of clothes.
